

Future Generations

Experience and best practices across
EU member states

www.fitforfuturegenerations.eu

What do we expect from a Commissioner for Intergenerational Fairness?

The new commissioner should legislate to make the rights of Future Generations more explicit and operational in EU law

Should use foresight appropriately in impact assessments for Future Generations

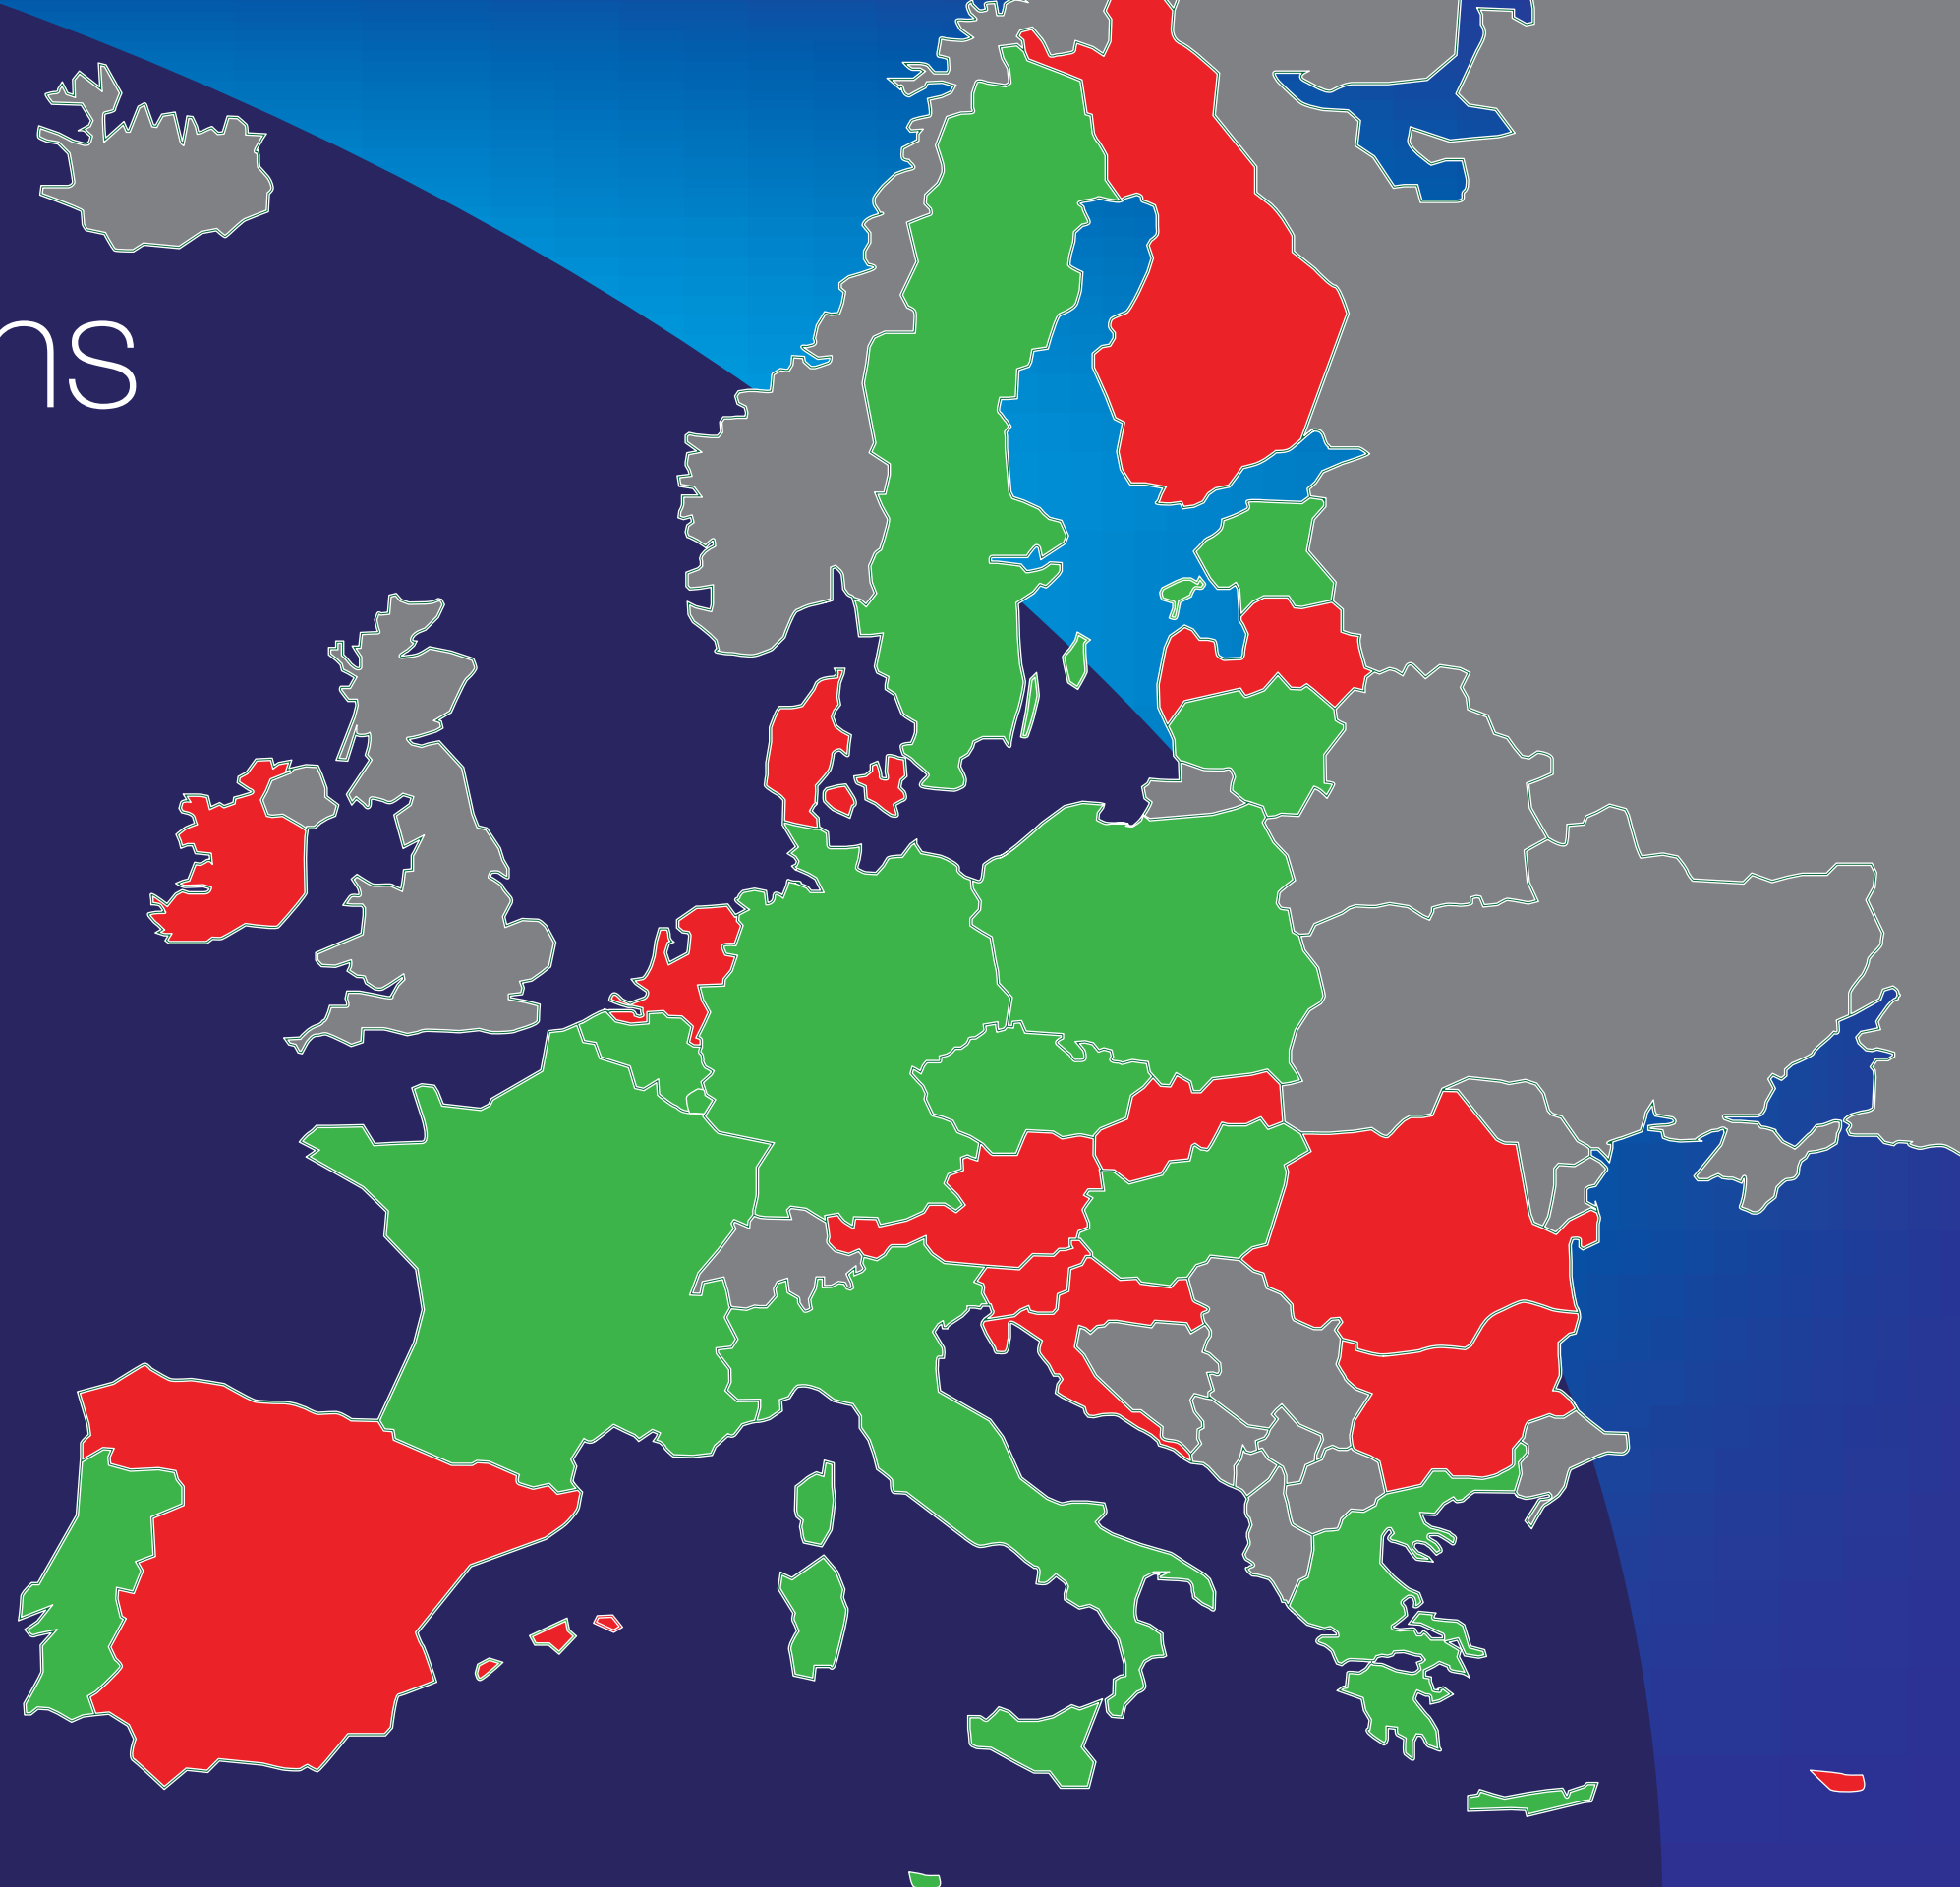

Should establish participatory processes for Future Generations' political representation

Future Generations in the national constitution

-  14 EU member states
commit in their constitutions to protect Future Generations
-  No constitutional commitment
-  Non-EU countries

EU member states with either "Future Generations" or "Sustainable Development" in their national constitution.

There is already significant inspiration and experience across the EU in protecting Future Generations

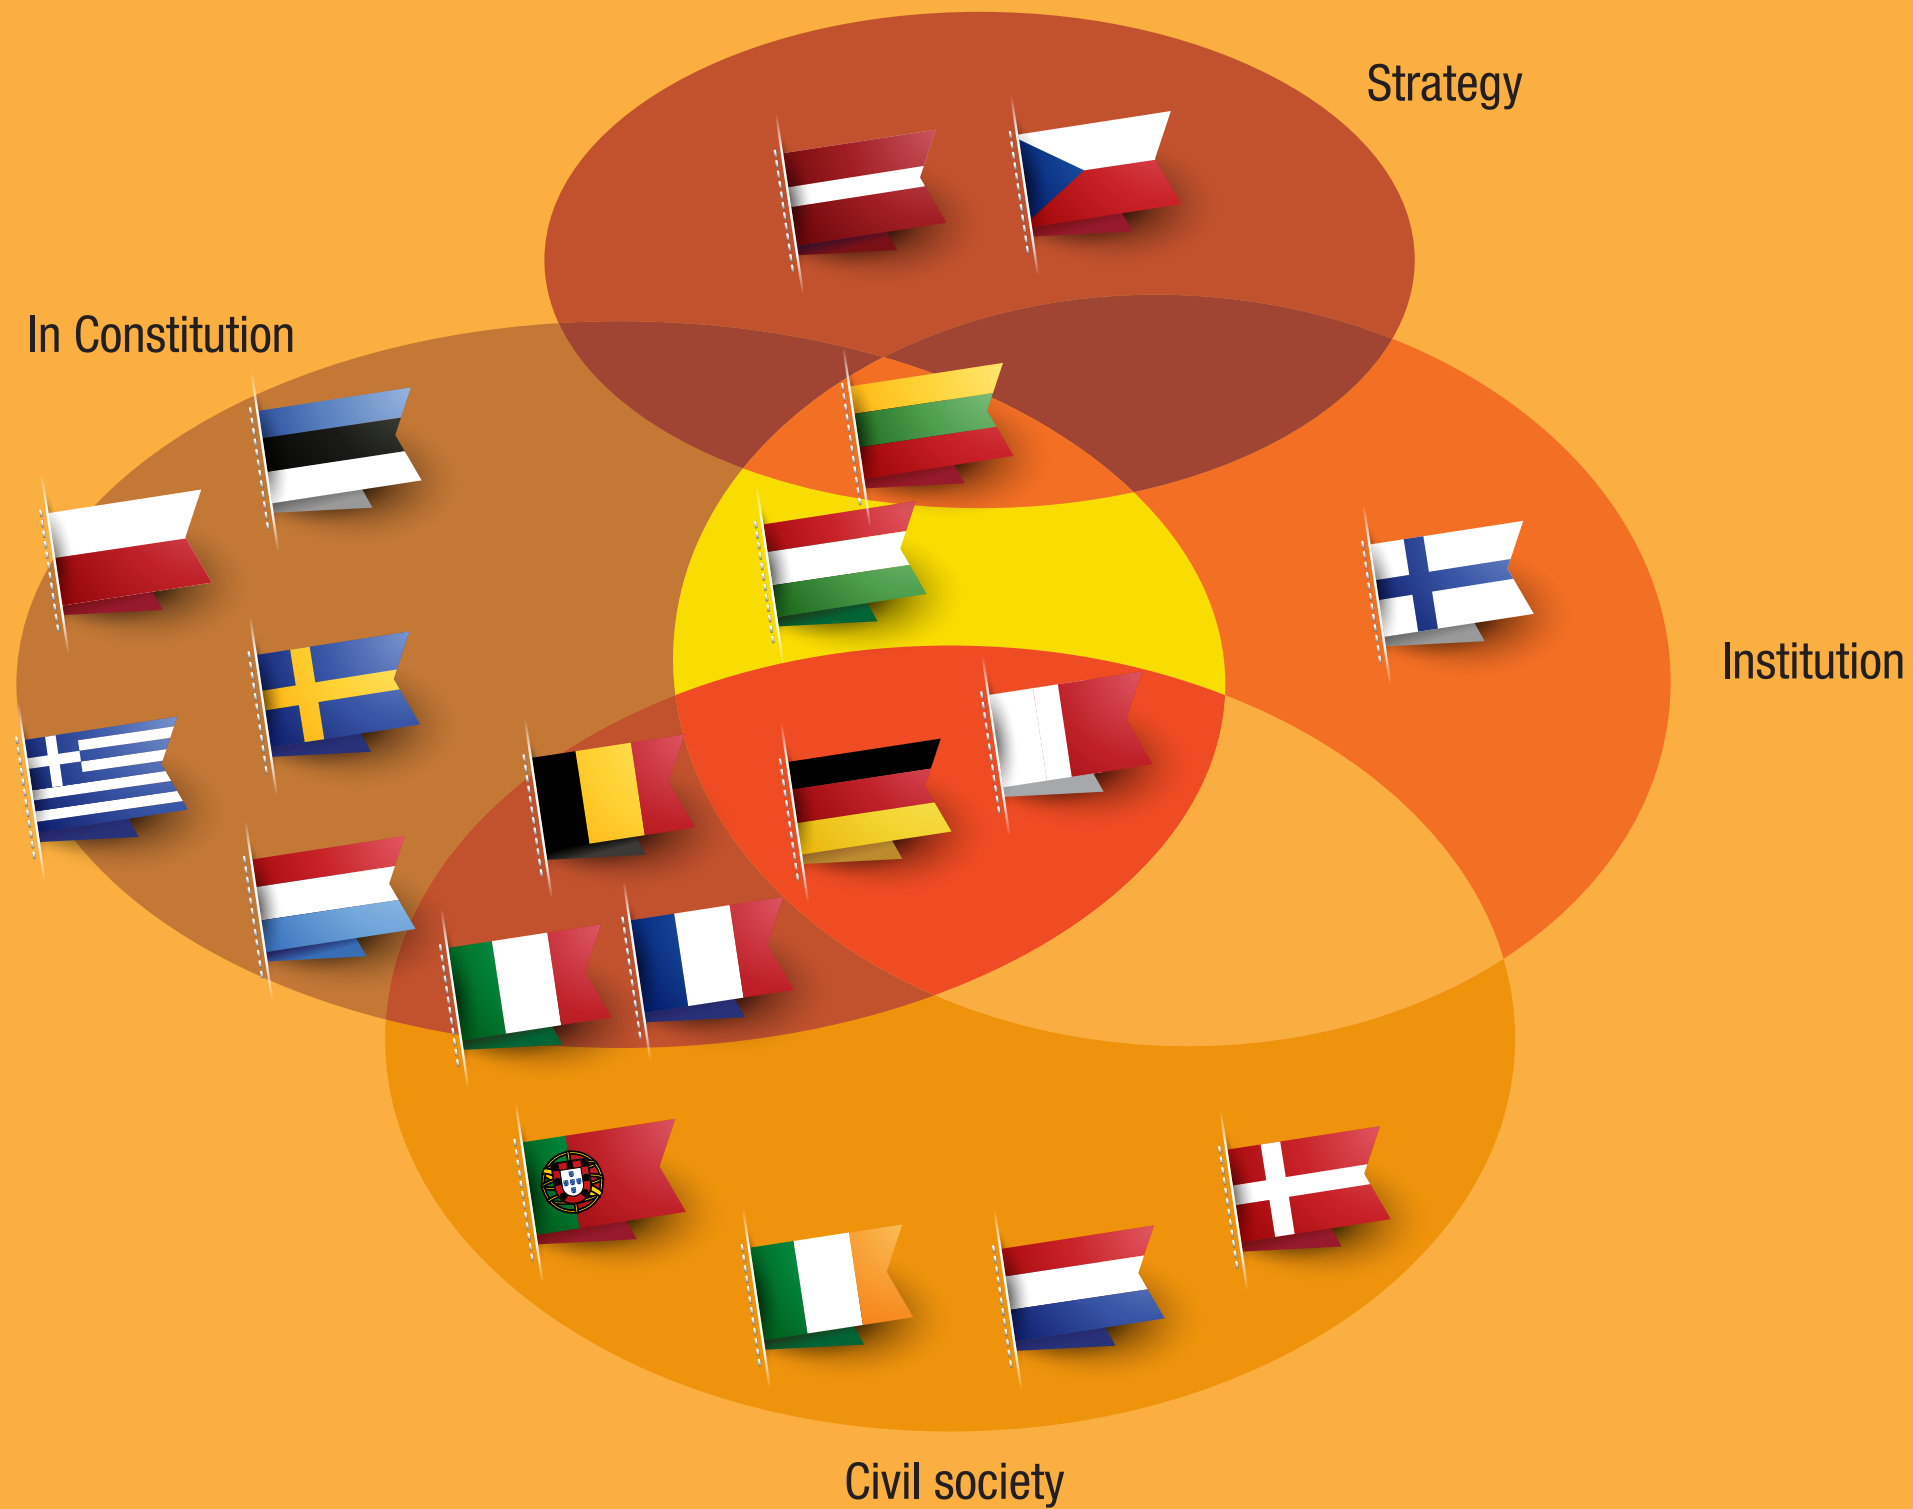

Action for Future Generations

-  Institutional mechanism
-  Civil society support
-  Strategy in place
-  N/A
-  Non-EU countries

What are member states doing for Future Generations?

FUTURE GENERATIONS INITIATIVE

